

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

Landenburg, Thalman & Co., of New York, have engaged $500,000 gold bars for shipment to Paris on Thursday.

It was announced today that 22,957 miners out of 23,442, employed in the collieries of the Belgium district are now out on strike.

Prince Etzel, has so far recovered from his attack of pneumonia that his physicians announced today that no further bulletins will be issued.

Joseph H. Manley, former chairman of the national executive committee of the Republican party, died suddenly at his home at Augusta, Me., today.

Several coal pockets of the Erie railroad, a number of cars and several small buildings at Port Jervis, N. Y., were burned today. The loss is estimated at about $100,000.

Sir Robert Thomas Dewar, member of parliament, the well known British sportsman, was a passenger on the steamer Deutschland, which sailed today for Naples and Genoa from New York.

A spark from a workman's torch falling on oily waste and a greasy floor caused a fire today which destroyed the Rome, N. Y., Merchant Iron mill, entailing a loss of $200,000, partially covered by insurance.

Two lives were lost in a fire which destroyed the farmhouse of Charles Smith, near Merdill, N. F., today. The victims were Miss Harriet Pratt and Smith's 5-year-old daughter. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective chimney.

The local newspapers of Buenos Ayres announce that the insurrection has been suppressed at Cordoba, the city which it had been restricted without any further fighting. The insurgents surrendered unconditionally and their leaders fled.

Charles F. Taylor, business partner of Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, has been arrested at his office in Chicago charged with being a fugitive from justice. He is alleged to have been implicated in a swindle at Nacogdoches, Tex., involving $3,000.

The valuation of Mrs. Chadwick's estate was not given by the receivers, but it is generally believed that all told the property is not worth or will exceed $50,000. On this basis Mrs. Chadwick's creditors will receive, after the court costs are deducted, not more than 2 per cent on their claims.

When You Have a Cold.

The first action when you have a cold should be to relieve the lungs. This is best accomplished by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy liquefies the tough mucous and causes its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs, produces a free expectoration and opens the secretions. A complete cure soon follows. This remedy will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment, and it leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. It counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.

Play Games.

Games help to form character to a wonderful extent, and I do not know any means by which you can so quickly arrive at an estimate of human character, of individuality, of personality, as you can by watching people at games or engaged in any sport that calls for endurance, patience, celerity of mind and body. The school with a good record for games is almost always in the front rank of scholarship. —Dr. Warre.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women." Sold under guarantee by all druggists at 50c a bottle.

Former Experience Painful.

The young woman had just said no. "Have you ever been rejected before, Mr. Huddleston?" she asked sympathizingly and almost tenderly. "Once," he said, a spasm of pain constricting his features at the recollection, "by a life insurance company. I tell you it hurt—that time."—Chicago Tribune.

Agonizing Burns

Are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully—that it blistered all over. Bucklen's Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c at all druggists.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

PRONUNCIATION.

Read Over This Test and Then Consult Your Dictionary.

The following rather curious piece of composition was placed upon the blackboard at a certain teachers' institute and a prize of a dictionary offered to any person who could read it and pronounce every word correctly. The book was not carried off, as twelve was the lowest number of mistakes in pronunciation made:

"A sacrilegious son of Belial who has suffered from bronchitis, having exhausted his finances in order to make good the deficit, resolved to ally himself to a comely, lenient and docile young lady of the Malay or Caucasian race. He accordingly purchased a calliope and coral necklace of a chameleon hue and securing a suit of rooms at a principal hotel he engaged the head waiter as his condjutor. He then dispatched a letter of the most unexceptional calligraphy extant, inviting the young lady to a matinee. She revolted at the idea, refused to consider herself sacrificable to his desires and sent a polite note of refusal, on receiving which he procured a carbine and bowie knife, said that he would not now forget fetters hymeneal with the queen and went to an isolated spot, severed his jugular vein and discharged the contents of the carbine into his abdomen. The debris was removed by the coroner."

The mistakes in pronunciation were made on the following words: Sacrilegious, Belial, bronchitis, exhausted, finances, deficit, comely, lenient, docile, Malay, calliope, chameleon, suit, condjutor, calligraphy, matinee, sacrificable, carbine, hymeneal, isolated, jugular and debris.

Another Case of Rheumatism Cured by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

The efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the relief of rheumatism is being demonstrated daily. Parker Triplett of Grigsby, Va., says that Chamberlain's Pain Balm gave him permanent relief from rheumatism in the back when everything else failed, and he would not be without it. For sale by all druggists.
